Tuition policy

Our Tuition structure operates from September through June, encompassing our dance season. Please note tuition fees are not prorated for missed classes, holidays or short months. Similarly, we do not charge extra for months with 5 weeks. Dancers are encouraged to do make up classes for missed classes and any studio closures in classes that are appropriate for their age/level. Tuition is due by the 5th of the month and the preferred method of payment is auto pay. Auto pay will be run on the 6th for all outstanding balances.

The registration fee is collected once every dance season regardless of when you started the previous season. The fee pays for insurance and musical licensing, and studio improvements made each season. If you drop classes mid season and return, you will be charged $25 to rejoin the class(es) if the class has not filled up in your dancer's absence.
